Once this form is completed, please send it to the email address cleanstitchllc@gmail.com with the subject "Clerk of Superior Court Polos Order"

You will be notified of the total cost (for your approval) before any order is placed.

Additional Information

Only team members of the Clerk's Office may purchase uniform shirts. The shirts are made available for sale so team members can have them as an option for work attire. The shirts should only be worn by team members and only as work attire and while serving as a member of the Clerk Team.

When no longer using shirts that are in usable condition, team members are encouraged to donate or sell them to other team members or donate them to the "Clerks Closet" where other team members in need of uniform items may re-use them. If you decide to donate to the Clerks Closet, please send the shirts to COC Admin - DJC/EA

We kindly request that team members please do not donate uniform items to charities such as Goodwill or the Salvation Army where individuals who are not members of the Clerk Team could buy them and potentially impersonate or present themselves as representatives of the Office. Thank you!
